

Rajkumari Amrit Kaur College of Nursing, Lajpat Nagar, New Delhi

“Swasth Nari Sashakt Parivar”

Report on Blood Donation Camp held on 18th September 2025

A Blood Donation Camp was organized by the M.Sc. Nursing students, Department of Medical Surgical Nursing of Rajkumari Amrit Kaur College of Nursing, Lajpat Nagar, New Delhi on 18th September 2025, from 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. The event was held under the banner “Swasth Nari Sashakt Parivar”, a recent initiative launched by the Government of India to promote health and empowerment among families.

The event was graced by the esteemed presence of Dr. Amita Bali, DDG (P), DGHS, Ministry of Health & Family Welfare, Government of India, as the Chief Guest. In her address, she emphasized the importance of voluntary blood donation and acknowledged the efforts of nursing students in taking forward such noble initiatives. Her inspiring words motivated both the students and the donors to continue contributing towards the cause of humanity.

The camp was organized in collaboration with the Blood Bank, AIIMS Jai Prakash Narayan Apex Trauma Center (JPNATC), New Delhi, which provided technical and medical support to ensure the smooth conduct of blood donation activities. The AIIMS Blood Bank team was led by Dr. Vaidehi, Senior Resident at AIIMS, New Delhi, who appreciated the efforts of the nursing students and motivated the donors with her encouraging words.

The blood donation camp received an overwhelming response, with a total of 68 registrations. Of these, 45 volunteers were deemed eligible, resulting in the successful collection of 45 units of blood. The participants included, faculty members, office staff and nursing students (M.Sc. Nursing and B.Sc. Nursing) of the college, all of whom came forward with remarkable enthusiasm to support the initiative. The seamless execution of the camp was a testament to the excellent teamwork, careful planning, and dedicated efforts of the organizing committee. Special care was taken for all donors—refreshments and a small token gift were provided to each donor as a gesture of appreciation. To spread awareness, informative pamphlets were also distributed among participants and the public.

In conclusion, the Blood Donation Camp was a resounding success that not only fulfilled its objective to promote voluntary blood donation but also provided an enriching learning experience to the students. The presence of the Chief Guest, Dr. Amita Bali, added immense value to the occasion and further inspired everyone present. The event truly embodied the spirit of “Swasth Nari Sashakt Parivar” and reinforced the role of academic institutions in contributing to community health and National welfare.

Rajkumari Amrit Kaur College of Nursing, Lajpat Nagar, New Delhi

“Swasth Nari Sashakt Parivar”

Glimpses of the Blood Donation Camp held on 18th September 2025

Welcoming Chief guest Dr. Amita Bali (DDG (P) DGHS, Ministry of Health & family Welfare) and Dr. Vaidehi (Senior Resident, AIIMS JPNATC Blood Bank, New Delhi)

Welcome Address by Chief guest Dr. Amita Bali and Dr. Vaidehi

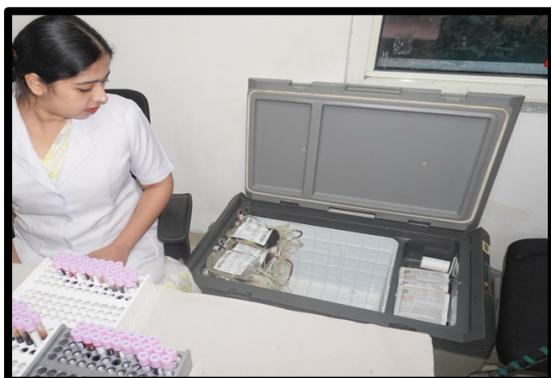

Inaugural Ceremony

Registration and Initial Screening Desk

Blood Donation Area

Sample Collection Area

Refreshment Area

Organising Team